STATE OF CALIFORNIA

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, find that conditions of extreme peril to the safety of persons and property exist within the County of San Joaquin, State of California, as a result of a levee break that occurred on June 3, 2004, and ongoing flooding. Upon the request of the Director of Emergency Services for the County of San Joaquin who has declared a local disaster, and because the magnitude of this disaster exceeds the capabilities of the services, personnel, and facilities of the county, I find the County of San Joaquin to be in a state of emergency, and under the authority of the California Emergency Services Act, set forth at Title 2, Division 1, Chapter 7 of the California Government Code, commencing with section 8550, I hereby proclaim that a State of Emergency exists within San Joaquin County.

Pursuant to this proclamation, I hereby direct all agencies of the state government, as necessary, to utilize and employ state personnel, equipment and facilities for the performance of any and all activities to alleviate this emergency including repairs to transportation facilities caused by flood damage and/or repair activities and, furthermore, direct the implementation of state disaster assistance programs in accordance with state law. Furthermore, I specifically authorize the State Director of Emergency Services to take all necessary action authorized by the Emergency Services Act (Government Code section 8550, et seq.) to alleviate this emergency.

I FURTHER DIRECT that as soon as hereafter possible, this proclamation be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State and that widespread publicity and notice be given to this proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 4th day of June 2004.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER
Governor of California
